

Henry Montelongo graduated from Channel Islands in 2007. He is currently attending Oxnard College. He was hired as a Port Hueneme Police Explorer on 06/19/06 and at that time, he was also an Explorer for the American Medical Response Paramedics.

He attended the Police Explorer Academy in 2006. He tested and was promoted to Explorer Senior in 2007. Three months later he was promoted to Explorer Sergeant.

Shortly after being promoted to Explorer Sergeant, he was hired as a Part-time Police Dispatcher for the Port Hueneme Police Department. To help continue his expertise in all fields he applied for the open parking Enforcement Officer position for the City of Port Hueneme and was hired on 08/27/08, while maintaining his ongoing training as a Police Dispatcher. In 2008 he was appointed the Explorer Lieutenant position, which oversees the Explorer program.

His goal after receiving his Associates Degree in Liberal Arts is to attend UCLA and obtain his Bachelors Degree in Communications, which he plans to use in the future areas of his Law Enforcement career.
