CANDIDATE FOR MEMBER OF THE CITY COUNCIL CITY OF PORT HUENEME

Name: Will Berg
Occupation: Incumbent

Age: 70

Four years ago, Hueneme was struggling with finances, management turnover, and reputation concerns. Today none of these are true.

We continue to enhance partnerships as we build a solid base for our future, while keeping our citizens safe.

We passed our second two-year budget in the black and on time, and after years of neglect signed two three-year contracts with our police union and SEIU employees. We've added police vehicles and trained civilian personnel to aid the police keeping our officers on the beat.

We were the first city in the county to carefully allow, monitor and regulate our successful cannabis industry. However, our success has not been about cannabis alone.

Our residents agreed to increase the sales tax on dollars spent in our city to raise important revenue.

We've benefited from our partnership with the Port, working hard to lay the groundwork for smart green growth.

I'm committed to remaining focused on tomorrow's challenges, including unfunded liabilities and aging infrastructure. We deal with an average of 15 major waterline breaks annually. Additional trials remain ahead, but I have helped build an air of confidence about the future heretofore missing for some time. I will keep our successes coming.
